Sunken Forest

Des Hunt

$19.00

Sent to live with his grandmother in Hastings after his father is jailed, Matt becomes the victim of bad friends and false accusations. Packed off on a military-style school camp to the wilds of Lake Waikaremoana, Matt again gets in trouble for something he didn't do, and is unjustly punished. Not allowed to join his school friends on their activities, he spends time alone down by the lake where he discovers a massive eel. Unfortunately, the class 'bad boy', Cam, is determined to kill it. But it's a strange twist of fate when Matt finds himself in a position to save Cam's life ...

Sales Points:

- Popular author Des Hunt manages to successfully combine action adventure with environmental message
- Gripping storyline with a dramatic climax

Jessica's Ghost

Andrew Norriss

$19.00

When Jessica sits down next to Francis on a bench one break time, he's surprised to learn that she isn't actually alive — she's a ghost. And she's surprised too, because Francis is the first person who has ever been able to see her. Before long, Francis and Jessica are best friends, enjoying life more than they have in a long time. When they meet two more friends who also can see Jessica, the question arises: what is it the children have in common? And is it connected to the existence of Jessica's ghost? The answer, when it emerges, is both surprising and moving — and leads to a dramatic conclusion that none of them could have foreseen.
