Barking Mad

Tom E. Moffatt

Illus by Paul Beavis

$17.00

Look out! Everyone's gone barking mad!

At first, Finn refuses to believe that his granddad has gone barking mad! But what straight-thinking grownup goes around licking the postman, growling like a dog and chasing hospital security guards up a tree? But when Finn and his sister Sally discover a bizarre machine in Granddad's workshop, mix-ups turn into mind-swapping madness – one look at Granddad's dog DaVinci is proof of that!

Sales Points:

- Tom Fitzgibbon award winner
- Chaos reigns in this laugh-out-loud story of mind-swapping genius by new author and former school teacher Tom E. Moffatt
- For fans of Andy Griffiths and David Walliams
- With hilarious, quirky illustrations by Paul Beavis

Jeffery Self

$25.00

This book takes us on a road trip with an insecure high school senior who has one goal: to be the first in his family to leave Clearwater, Florida, and go to college. The problem is, he has zero means of paying for school — until his friends convince him to compete in a drag teen competition for a college scholarship.

Sales Points:

- A fantastic, fabulous, funny YA debut from Jeffery Self, one of the gay icons of the Youtube generation
- His 'Jeffery and Cole' videos have a wide following, with some boasting nearly 1.5 million views
- Drag Teen takes a hard but hopeful look at the identity issues young gay men face in a culture obsessed with appearance and categories

Scholastic's mission is built on helping children learn to read and love to read.
We believe that independent reading is a critical part of children's learning and growth.

With support from teachers, parents, and schools, children choose from Scholastic the books they want to read, and discover the pleasure and power of reading.

Finding the right book at the right time can light an emotional spark within children that motivates them to read more, understand more, and read joyfully.

When that happens,
the world opens.
Everything becomes possible.
