

Fly Pie

by Joy Cowley/Philip Webb

Keynote

'The lily pad is not always greener on the other side of the pond ...'

Description

Once there was a frog who had been a prince. He knew he could become a prince again if he were kissed by a princess ... but there's this cute girl frog on the lily pad next door ... When the girl frog asks him to marry her, he tells her he can't because he's a prince in disguise, and off he goes to find his princess.

But princesses aren't always the nicest of people, and the frog soon decides that perhaps life in the lily pond with the cute frog next door might be the best option!

Specifications

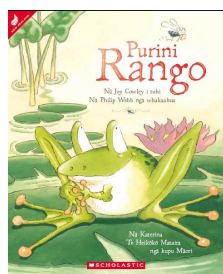

Publication	March 2010
ISBN	978-1-86943-924-8 978-1-86943-950-7 (Maori edition)
New Zealand RRP	$18.99
Printing	Full colour
Binding	Paperback
Format	265 x 215 mm
Extent	32 pp
Age	3-6 years
Lexile	Read aloud
Rights available	World excl ANZ
Weight	150g

Selling points

- Bestselling author and illustrator
- Based on the fable The Frog Prince
- Also available in Maori language edition

Maori edition

Title: Purini Rango
Retold by Kāterina Mataira

Previous publications

Greedy Cat series (author)
Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig series
(illustrator)
Dragor (illustrator)

About the author

Joy Cowley is commonly acknowledged as one of the 'grandes dames' of NZ children's literature, along with Margaret Mahy.

About the illustrator

Philip Webb is a Wellington-based illustrator, with two titles he illustrated for Scholastic receiving Honour Awards at the NZ Post Children's Book Awards – Dragor and Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig.

Awards

Joy Cowley – too numerous to list.
Philip Webb – NZ Post Children's Book Awards – Honour Books – Dragor and Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig.