

Animals of Ancient Egypt

WHO AM I?	1. MY NAME IS... 2. BELIEF ABOUT THIS ANIMAL	THE HEIROGLYPH FOR MY NAME IS...	I LOOK LIKE THIS...
I am the goddess of love and joy. I am sometimes depicted as a cow or with cow horns.
I am the god of writing and knowledge. I have the head of an ibis and I carry writing implements.
I am represented as a man with a jackal head. I am the god who looks after mummification.
I am a mix of lion and human features and I am the god who looks after babies and families.
Normally I have the head of a gentle cat but when the Pharaoh is at war it changes to a lion's head.
Pharaoh was my living embodiment. I have the head of a hawk or falcon .
