

Scroll Countdown Sign

Supplies*:

- Canvas fabric
- Scissors
- Paint brushes
- Beige, tan, brown, and black paint
- Stencil brush
- Letter stencil
- Black chalkboard paint
- Pool noodle
- Hot glue gun
- ½" PVC pipe
- PVC pipe cutter
- Brown duct tape
- Fishing line or string
- Chalk

Directions:

1. Cut a 2' x 5' piece out of canvas.
2. Paint the canvas beige and dry brush the edges tan and brown, creating a parchment look. Allow to dry.
3. Add words to canvas with letter stencil, stencil paint brush, and black paint. Allow to dry.
4. Paint two squares with black chalk paint under OPEN IN.
5. Cut a pool noodle into two, with the same widths as the scroll.
6. Wrap the ends of the scroll around the pool noodles. Hot glue in place.
7. Cut the ½" PVC pipe into four 6" pieces. Insert the pipes into the pool noodle hole, creating the scroll handles.
8. Cover the pool noodle sides and PVC in brown duct tape.
9. Tie a length of fishing line or string to the scroll handles. Hang the scroll on a stand, on a wall, or from the ceiling.
10. Write the number of days left until the Book Fair starts on the black chalkboard squares with chalk.

*Remember, these are only suggestions. This project should be fun and creative, so use supplies you have on hand for substitutions.